

The Monongahela Area Chamber of Commerce and Slagle Roofing, Inc.

are pleased to announce the tri-community holiday light up celebration “Santa Claus is Shopping in Town” to be held on November 18th, 2011 starting at 5PM.

Entertainment will be provided from local DJ's and Acoustic performers.

Lumanaries will light the way from Dierken's Pharmacy to the Tasty Twist in New Eagle, PA. Compliments of Keystone Bakery, New Eagle Bakery and Bartman, Inc.

Christmas trees donated by Lone Oak Farm will be on display in the community and decorated by school students.

Shuttle bus service will be available from Sheetz to New Eagle Bakery.

Most local businesses will be hosting open house & raffles with prize give-aways.

Santa will be lead by the Ringgold Marching Band and Monongahela/Donora Lions Club to his home in front of First Federal Savings Bank at 7PM. Grilli's Studio will be available to take your picture with Santa!

The Library is hosting a vendor/craft show and will provide Holiday movies for children.

The Historical Society will host a bake sale. Also available are Monongahela themed ornaments.

The Dance Company by Miss Lori of New Eagle will be entertaining throughout the Community.

Hill's restaurant will provide hot chocolate and pie.

Eat N Park will provide cookies.

Karen Wilson's City Salon will host raffles and drawings. Donating proceeds to local a local church or charity in the community.

The Senior Center will be hosting a bake/craft sale. They will also be hosting a card party.

Ringgold Raz Ma Taz choir will be singing Christmas songs throughout the community.

Ringgold Art students will paint local business windows.

For more information please contact 724.258.5919