Public Forum:

Chris Bartkus, Alexander Street, as parade chairman of the 250th celebration, he thanked Chief Harris for his help and crew for a fine job in handling all the details for the parade.

Scott Frederick, Seuaoyah Lane, thanked council for allowing him to pursue the late Al Helfer Hall of Fame presentation. He passed out a hand-out outlining the amount of publicity this generated.

Jim Braum, Carroll Township, thanked the city, council and street crew for the help with the Main Street Youth program street fair during the 250th celebration. It was a very big success and was well attended.

George Eckert, President of MARC, thanked the Chief for the help with the 5K race, announced that the last movie at the Mounds will be on Friday and the annual town hall meeting will be held in October. He stressed to council that the town needs councils of organization to get together and all on the same page.

Terry Necciai, 400 Meade Street, thanked the Chief, city, street crew and Rusty Polonoli and all who came together for the success of the Main Street Youth street fair and also agreed with Mr. Eckert with his remarks about a council of governments.

Councilman Kulak stated that many years ago the city received a grant from the University of Michigan to reach out to all local organizations but it didn't get a good response. He said that maybe if this could be taken up again, maybe there could be a better response.

Chad DeSantis, Decker Street, read a hilarious response from facebook from his cousin Randy Walters for this thoughts on the 250th celebration.
