

Minutes of the regular meeting of the Council of the City of Monongahela, due notice of which meeting was published according to law, held Wednesday September 11, 2019 at 7:00 P.M. in Council Chambers. The meeting was called to order by Mayor Kepics who led in the pledge to the flag.

The roll was called and the following present:

Bob Kepics
Ken Kulak
William Polonoli

Members of the Monongahela-Donora Lyons Club were present to display the bench made by Trex with recyclable plastic bags. When another 500 bags are collected, the city will receive another bench.

Public Forum:

Vern Sibert, informed council she is starting a non-profit organization of employers and volunteers for the purpose of collecting trash along local highways and exit ramps and asked the support of council.

Gretchen Clegg de Lopez, 507 Second Street, reported to council there is still a water problem on Second Street and is still looking for any possible help with her recent problem.

Carla Roman, Ninth Street, said she is a crossing guard at Madonna Catholic School and asked if the cross walks could be painted. She complained about the condition of the house on Ninth Street and was told it was a historical problem and asked council to consider offering a discount to landlords who schedule and pay their rental property inspection in a timely manner.

Terry Necciai, 400 Meade Street, informed council that the City Clerk would be reading a request for a support letter for the Monongahela Main Street Program for an LSA grant and he summarized the facade program and new businesses.

Chad DeSantis, Decker Street, stated that in due process of law, he feels the new rental inspection program is a direct violation of the law.

George Eckert, President of MARC, gave his opinion of what could be done on the property of the yellow house on Ninth Street when it can be torn down.

Gregory Garry, 520 Fourth Street, asked if anything was ever checked about the lead in water not in the water supply, but in houses. Mayor Kepics said he would contact the water company with our concerns.
